DAILY BIBLE READING SCHEDULE

1. Your Purpose in using the daily Bible reading schedule is not to read the entire Bible through in one year. Rather, it is a tool to assist you in developing the habit of reading a small portion of the Bible every day.
2. Statics indicate that it will take you only 21 days before daily Bible reading becomes a habit. However, it takes only 3 days to break it. Commitment and consistency are the keys.
3. Everyone has time to read the Bible every day. Compare the time you spend watching TV and reading the newspaper every day!
4. As you begin to develop the habit of reading daily, you will occasionally miss your reading, sometimes for even 2 - 3 days in a row. If this happens you don't need to catch up by cramping the missed days in one sitting. To catch up skip what you missed and read the current days portion. However, you may read missed days. Be self disciplined and never give up trying!
5. You will read portions of both the Old and New Testaments every day. Generally, you will read the Old Testament through once and the New Testament through twice in one year.
6. Total daily reading time is about 20 minutes. Readings are about 10 minutes long for each of the Old and New Testament portions.
7. The 66 books will be read in the order they appear in the Bible with these exceptions for the purpose of balance:
  - a. The gospels are spaced evenly throughout the year, 1 every 6 weeks.
  - b. The Psalms are divided up into 4 readings spaced every 3 months.
  - c. The book of Proverbs is read twice a year, once every 6 months.
  - d. Kings and Chronicles are read 6 months apart.
  - e. The book of Revelation is read only once a year.
8. Have you ever wondered how to increase your faith? "Faith comes from hearing (or reading) the word of God" (Romans 10:17)
